

Deck chairs and documentaries, pizza and popcorn, this is cinema the Orange Box way – an affordable film experience like no other. This first ever season begins with a selection of little known documentaries inspired by The BFI Film Audience Network's ground-breaking initiative to give audiences the opportunity to see a diverse range of films in a cinema setting.

The Divide

Thursday 8 September | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

12a

To celebrate Orange Box's 3rd year since opening, this first film in the season looks at austerity and aiming for a better life. This is a story of seven individuals on both sides of the pond and how their life is affected by the gap between the rich and the poor.

The Pearl Button

Thursday 22 September | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

12a

Beautiful, haunting and tinged with melancholy, Patricia Guzmán's The Pearl Button is a fascinating journey through Chile's troubled past. Tracing back over 3000 years with archival images and gorgeous new footage, it tells a deeply affecting history of Chile's lost tribes and political prisoners. In Spanish with English subtitles.

The New Black

Thursday 6 October | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

A documentary following the African-American community in Maryland and the campaign to legalise gay marriage in the area. Following participants from both sides, the film paints a picture of religion, marriage and the modern world, and how gay marriage is incorporated into it.

Notes on Blindness

Thursday 13 October | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

U

A unique portrayal following John Hull, via his audio cassettes, detailing his journey into blindness and how he was affected by this upheaval in his life.

Power in Our Hands

Thursday 15 September | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

PG

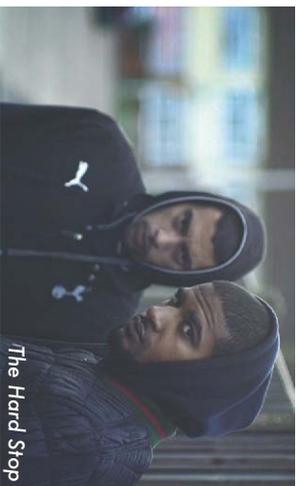

A ground breaking documentary that looks at how the deaf community fought for civil rights. Released this year, the 125th anniversary of the British Deaf Association, this is an opportunity to discover the story through archive footage and interviews. Subtitled.

The Hard Stop

Thursday 29 September | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

15

In London 2011 the shooting of Mark Duggan sparked the largest civil unrest in recent memory. The Hard Stop follows the impact on the area where Mark was shot, and follows his family and friends involved in the riots.

The Hard Stop

Capturing the Friedmans

Thursday 20 October | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

15

The story of an upper middle class Jewish family with a dark secret. Opening in 2004 Capturing the Friedmans is a good chance to raise awareness of safeguarding and how the normal isn't always the norm.

The Imposter

Thursday 27 October | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

15

A special documentary for Halloween, The Imposter is the story of a Texan family whose son disappeared for three years only to be found in a phone box in Spain. Following his journey back to his parents, everything might not be as it seems...

DOUBLE BILL

Thursday 3 November | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

The directors of both films will be giving talks at this double bill filmmaking evening. If you're interested in the art of film or you want to release a film yourself then come along and see how the young film makers of Britain are doing it.

NG83

Five former break-dancers reflect on their youthful rites of passage through the vibrant UK Hip Hop scene of the early 1980s and how it allowed them to escape the confines of life on inner city council estates.

David Vaughan Black on the Canvas

When clearing out a house in Manchester a group of men came across the left over paintings of little known but influential artist David Vaughan (father of Sadie Frost). Looking back on his career since the 60's this film follows a truly inspirational artist you may never have heard of.

Dark Days

Thursday 10 November | 7:00pm
£4

18

Many homeless people struggle for a settled down environment and have nowhere to go. This group of people in Manhattan have decided to set up a small community under Penn Station. Watch as director Marc Singer took time to live and be among a group of people who don't have very much, but they do have a community.

HOMELESS FESTIVAL

INTO FILM FESTIVAL

Into Film Festival

Thursday 17 & 24 November | 6:00pm
FREE

For two weeks we will be offering two free screenings as part of the Into Film Festival. Designed for young people aged 5 – 19 years old, they will be picking and screening the films you watch. Keep an eye on the Orange Box website and social media for the latest.

Introduction by Director

One Rogue Reporter

Thursday 1 December | 7:00pm
£4

18

Rich Peppiatt delivers a satirical dissection of the newspaper trade by turning the tables on unscrupulous editors. Through a series of mischievous stunts and interviews with heavyweights of journalism, comedy and politics, Peppiatt hilariously exposes the hypocrisy at the heart of modern journalism. Rich Peppiatt will also be joining us for a chat and to answer any questions about the film, media and why he even worked for the Daily Star.

The Island President

Thursday 8 December | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

PG

President Mohamed Nasheed of the Maldives, has a very important job. Not only is he president of the lowest lying island in the world he has to make sure that it isn't flooded by global warming!

The Act of Killing

The Look of Silence

Thursday 22 December | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

15

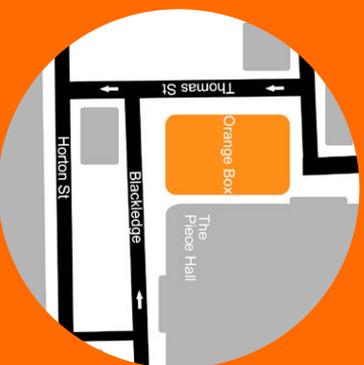

This follows on from The Act of Killing is not your typical Christmas film. Following a family that survives the genocide in Indonesia, The Look of Silence shows their confrontation with the men who killed one of their brothers.

The Act of Killing

Thursday 15 December | 7:00pm
£4 & £2 for under 18s

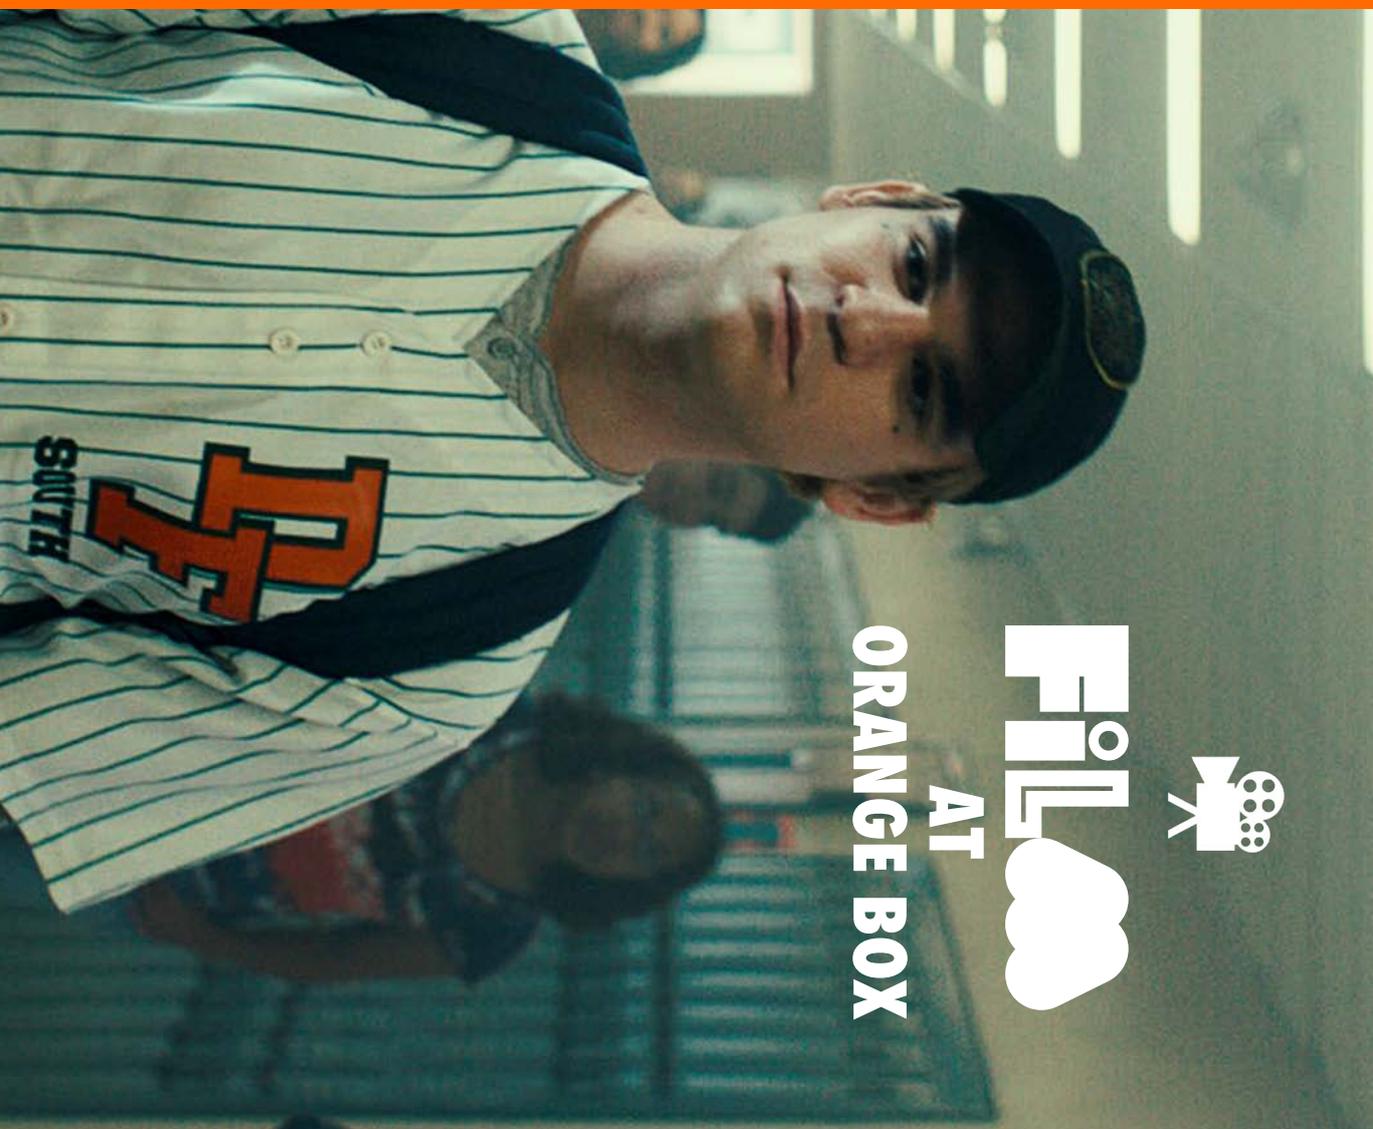

15

A documentary that challenges former Indonesian death-squad leaders to reenact their mass-killings in whichever cinematic genres they wish, including classic Hollywood crime scenarios and lavish musical numbers.

For more information call Orange Box on 01422 433200.
Tickets available on the door from 6:00pm,
cash only.

Facebook.com/OrangeBoxHalifax
Twitter.com/OrangeBoxHX

FILM

AT

ORANGE BOX

Orange Box young people's centre
1 Blackledge, Halifax HX1 1AF | 01422 433 200
hello@orangeboxhalifax.org | orangeboxhalifax.org